

RUDIO CREEK RANCH

Custom Cattle Grazing Services for 2025

Premium Custom Grazing in Eastern Oregon

Rudio Creek Ranch offers top-tier custom grazing services for your 2025 herd. Our family-owned and operated ranch near Monument, Oregon provides a perfect blend of experience, technology, and dedicated care for your cattle.

Bring your herd in January

Pick up your herd in early August

10-week supplemental feeding period

17-week grazing period

What We Offer

- Full supplemental feeding (Jan-Mar)
- Comprehensive medical support
- Daily herd management
- Advanced tracking with GSAT.us GPS ear tags

Our Services Include

- Receiving and processing of cattle upon arrival
- Administration of routine vaccinations and parasite control
- Prompt notification of any health issues, injuries, or mortalities
- Regular weighing and performance record-keeping via herd sampling
- Shipping preparation and loading assistance at season's end

2024 Performance Highlights

- Herd Type: Stocker Cattle
- Herd Mix: Black Angus, Red Angus, and Charolais steers
- Average Arrival Weight: 560 lbs
- Average Departure Weight: 828 lbs
- Average Weight Gain: 268 lbs per animal

Top Performing Lots:

- 272 steers averaged 853 lbs
- 154 steers averaged 900 lbs

Let our proven experience help your herd reach its full potential!

WHY CHOOSE RUDIO CREEK RANCH?

Experienced Family Operation • Proven Weight Gains
Advanced Facilities and Technology • Comprehensive Care

Tailored nutrition program for optimal growth

Supplemental Feeding Period: Grass and Alfalfa mix (January–March)

Pasture Cycle:

- TruTrace® and Ultramin® supplements
- Performix Nutrition's Rumax™ BoviBoxes for continuous nutrition

Continuous monitoring and rapid response for eye, hoof, and other health issues

Highly-Competitive Fee Structure

Includes receiving, medical treatments, daily grazing, and weight-gain bonus.

Ranch Features

- 6,300 acres in Eastern Oregon
- Mix of irrigated and dryland grasses, enhanced by annual frost seeding
- 30 passive and solar-assisted water points
- 35 miles of fencing and cross-fencing

State-of-the-Art Equipment

- Large corral system with modern Priefert sweep, alley, inline scale, and squeeze chute/head gate
- Mobile corral for in-pasture medical administration
- 44-acre paddock system of 8' high mesh cattle fencing for January–March supplemental feeding
- 600-ton capacity barn for alfalfa and grass hay storage
- Truck-mounted D&M Multi-Bale Hydraulic Bale Flaker for precise feed distribution

Book your 2025 grazing season now!

Steve Kreitzberg, President
SteveK@RudioCreekRanch.com
503-358-4567